(11 March – 14 April 2002)

Part 3

And Jesus said to them,
 Can you make the wedding guests fast as long as the bridegroom is with them?
 But the days will come when the bridegroom will be taken from them;
 and then they will fast in those days.

The Weapons of the Beast

The next morning, the 15th of March, while I was praying and calling out to God, I saw vision of a sailboat standing docked towards the east, in the dam next to which we were staying during the fast. It was as if God had prepared a journey or a voyage, which we had to complete during this fast. We were full of expectation of what God was going to do during this time.

We decided to each one separate himself to the Lord Jesus and the work that the Holy Spirit wanted to accomplish in each one of us. While sitting next to the dam many signs appeared to me in the heavens.

The sign of something like a large seal that was propelled by a demonic commander came out of the southwest and went towards the north. Then another sign appeared, confirming the interpretation of the seal. I saw in the heavens the sign of the propeller of a Navy Seal submarine going into the east.

After this another sign appeared to me in the heavens. I saw a large swordfish, which also swam from the south-west into the north. Out of the stomach of this fish came forth something having two roots or branches under him. This was an evil and treacherous plan, which the one in command made so that he can cast down the Almighty and exalt himself above the heavens. See the Newsletter: The one vine pointed towards the north and the other towards the south. He wove and also called others to follow him. The sign of the swordfish changed into a sign of a helicopter attacking out of the air, with the nose of the helicopter looking like a swordfish pointing towards the ground, confirming what this sign represented. The Mil Mi-24 (Cyrillic Ми-24, NATO reporting name "Hind") is a large helicopter gunship and low-capacity troop transport produced by Mil Moscow Helicopter Plant and operated from 1972 by the Soviet Air Force, its successors, and over thirty other nations. The extensive use of this specific helicopter is indicated below.

Soviet pilots called the aircraft ("flyng tank"). More common unofficial nicknames were ("Crocodile"), due to the helicopter's new camouflage scheme [3] and ("Glass"), because of the flat glass plates which surrounded the three place cockpit of the Mi-24.

The core of the aircraft was derived from the Mil Mi-8 (NATO reporting name "Hip"), two top-mounted turboshaft engines driving a mid-mounted 17.3 m five-blade main rotor and a three-blade tail rotor. The engine configuration gave the aircraft its distinctive double air intake. Original versions have an angular greenhouse-style cockpit; Model D and later have a characteristic tandem cockpit with a "double bubble" canopy. Other airframe components came from the Mi-14 "Haze". Two mid-mounted stub wings provide weapon hardpoints, each offering three stations, in addition to providing lift. The load-out mix is mission dependent; Mi-24s can be tasked with close air support, anti-tank operations, or aerial combat. The body is heavily armored and the titanium rotor blades can resist impacts from .50 caliber (12.7 mm) rounds. The cockpit is overpressurized to protect the crew in NBC conditions. Then after this sign a sign of a dragon appeared in the sky – confirming who was behind this operation and attack on the northern countries. The Lord had shown me the one who controlled the attack and who was behind this operation. I saw one having the eyes like a bullfrog or a large blowfly, who called the swordfish to come up from the south.

This bull frog or blowfly is represented by the Hawkeye aircraft used by the United States of America. In United States service, the Hawkeye provides all-weather airborne early warning and command and control functions for the carrier battle group. Additional missions include surface surveillance coordination, strike and interceptor control, search and rescue guidance and communications relay. An integral component of the carrier air wing, the E-2C uses computerized sensors to provide early warning, threat analysis and control of counteraction against air and surface targets. It is a high-wing aircraft with stacked antennae elements contained in a 24-foot (7.3 m) rotating dome above the fuselage.

Since replacing the E-1 in 1964, the Hawkeye has been the "eyes of the fleet." Since its combat debut during the Vietnam conflict, the E-2 has served the US Navy around the world. Hawkeyes (from VAW-123 "Screwtops" aboard the USS America) directed F-14 fighters flying combat air patrol during Operation El Dorado Canyon, the two-carrier battle group joint strike against terrorist-related Libyan targets in 1986. More recently, E-2Cs provided the command and control for both land and air operations during the Gulf War. E-2C aircraft have worked with US Coast Guard, US Customs Service, and US law enforcement agencies in drug interdictions. In the and the for drug interdiction operations. A fatal aircraft mishap on 24 Aug 1990 involving a USCG E-2C at Naval Station Roosevelt Roads, Puerto Rico [3] led to the Coast Guard decommissioning its E-2C unit and all returning all borrowed E-2Cs to the US Navy control. The dragon had a mouth like a crocodile and trampled all the other nations. I saw how the nations fled before him in fear, like a lamb before his shearers. By the authority given him he trampled all nations that opposed him as was written: "And the beast that I saw resembled a leopard, but his feet were like those of a bear and his mouth was like that of a lion. And to him the dragon gave his [own] might and power and his [own] throne and great dominion." (Rev 13:2) Ampl

Then another sign appeared in the heavens. I saw a Lion blowing fire, upon the beast with a mouth like a crocodile. As I looked I saw an, unclean animal, a rat, coming out of the mouth of the beast with a mouth like a crocodile. The Lion in the vision referred to the first beast that the prophet Daniel saw, as was written: 2 Daniel said, I saw in my vision by night, and behold, the four winds of the heavens [Political and social agitations] were stirring up the great sea [the nations of the world]. 3 And four great beasts came up out of the sea in succession, and different from one another. 4 The first [the Babylonian empire under Nebuchadnezzar] was like a lion and had eagle's wings. I looked till the wings of it were plucked, and it was lifted up from the earth and made to stand upon two feet as a man, and a man's heart was given to it. [Dan. 2:37, 38.] (Dan 7:2-4) Ampl

After this sign another sign appeared in the heavens. I saw a man riding on a white horse, who had a mighty sword, which extended across the whole earth, as was written by the apostle John saying: "And I looked, and saw there a white horse whose rider carried a bow. And a crown was given him, and he rode forth conquering and to conquer." (Rev 6:2) Ampl He was given all power and right of control over the whole earth. Then I saw a mighty atom bomb explosion.

After this one more sign appeared in the sky. I saw a sign of a stealth bomber aeroplane that resembles the beast, pointing his nose towards the southwest, looking at the earth like a dragon who subjects his subjects, ruling them with an iron fist and a mighty hand, controlling all mankind, looking to see who would oppose or rebel against him so that he may wipe them from the face of the earth, as was prophesied by the apostle John: "They fell down and paid homage to the dragon, because he had bestowed on the beast all his dominion and authority; they also praised and worshiped the beast, exclaiming: "Who is a match for the beast" and: "Who can make war against him?" (Rev 13:4) Ampl

The Lockheed F-117 Nighthawk is a stealth ground attack aircraft formerly operated by the United States Air Force. The F-117A's first flight was in 1981, and it achieved Initial Operational Capability status in October 1983.^[1] The F-117A was "acknowledged" and revealed to the world in November 1988.^[4]

A product of the Skunk Works and a development of the Have Blue prototype, it became the first operational aircraft initially designed around stealth technology. The F-117A was widely publicized during the Gulf War of 1991.

The F-117 has been used several times in war. Its first mission was during the United States invasion of Panama in 1989.^[29] During that invasion two F-117A Nighthawks dropped two bombs on Rio Hato airfield. See Wikipedia

The stealth fighter attacked the most heavily fortified targets during Desert Storm (January-February 1991), and it was the only coalition jet allowed to strike targets inside Baghdad's city limits. The F-117A, which normally packs a payload of two 2,000-pound GBU-27 laser-guided bombs, destroyed and crippled Iraqi electrical power stations, military headquarters, communications sites, air defense operation centers, airfields, ammo bunkers, and chemical, biological and nuclear weapons plants.

Although only 36 stealth fighters were deployed in Desert Storm and accounted for 2.5 percent of the total force of 1,900 fighters and bombers, they flew more than a third of the bombing runs on the first day of the war. In all during Desert Storm, the stealth fighter conducted more than 1,250 sorties. During their mission, the F-117A pilots delivered over 2,000 tons of precision-guided ordnance with a hit rate of better than 80 percent and flew more than 6,900 hours. More than 3,000 antiaircraft guns and 60 surface-to-air missile batteries protected the city, but despite this seemingly impenetrable shield, the Nighthawks owned the skies over the city and, for that matter, the country. The stealth fighter, which is coated with a secret, radar-absorbent material, operated over Iraq and Kuwait with impunity, and was unscathed by enemy guns.

Although the 37th Tactical Fighter Wing Provisional and its 42 stealth fighters represented just 2.5 percent of all allied fighter and attack aircraft in the Gulf, the F-117As were assigned against more than 31 percent of the strategic Iraqi military targets attacked during the first 24 hours of the air campaign."^[30] During the war, it performed poorly dropping smart bombs on military targets, achieving a success rate of only 40%.^[32]

It was among the only U.S. or coalition aircraft to strike targets in downtown Baghdad. Among the aircraft with which the Nighthawk shared this distinction were the F-16s which attacked Baghdad during daylight on 19 January 1991 during the "Package Q" mission - the largest single strike flown during the war.^[33] Locals around Holloman Air Force Base call it the "Stealth", while the band of Air Force members, Dos Gringos, referred to it as the "Stinkbug".^[26] See Wikipedia

Therefore give Glory to whom Glory belong.

The God of Heaven and earth, the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, YAH, the Everlasting Father and Saviour of the world, who gave His only begotten Son, Jesus Christ – Yashua, has revealed these things to me his servant during the fast. God came to prepare His people before all these things come, like a snare, upon all the people of the entire earth, catching them unaware and unwarned, as Yashua prophesied, saying: “31 Even so, when you see these things taking place, understand and know that the kingdom of God is at hand. 32 Truly I tell you, this generation (those living at that definite period of time) will not perish and pass away until all has taken place. 33 The sky and the earth (the universe, the world) will pass away, but My words will not pass away. 34 But take heed to yourselves and be on your guard, lest your hearts be overburdened and depressed (weighed down) with the giddiness and headache and nausea of self-indulgence, drunkenness, and worldly worries and cares pertaining to [the business of] this life, and [lest] that day come upon you suddenly like a trap or a noose; 35 For it will come upon all who live upon the face of the entire earth. 36 Keep awake then and watch at all times [be discreet, attentive, and ready], praying that you may have the full strength and ability and be accounted worthy to escape all these things [taken together] that will take place, and to stand in the presence of the Son of Man. (Luke 21:31-36) Ampl

Yashua - Jesus, pre-warned this generation that when they see all these things come to pass that His coming is right at the door. Jesus warned us not be caught unaware and asleep, but to be alert and awake and to pray that we may stand before Him and escape all these things and appear before Him in heaven.

Therefore as faithful witnesses we also, now, pre-warn this generation to prepare, for these things will now suddenly come upon the whole earth, catching them off guard, with their hearts overburdened and depressed (weighed down) with the giddiness and headache and nausea of self-indulgence, drunkenness, and worldly worries and cares pertaining to [the business of] this life.

Therefore, as the apostle Paul urged, saying: 14 “Awake, O sleeper, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall shine (make day dawn) upon you and give you light.” [Isa. 26:19; 60:1, 2.] 15 Look carefully then how you walk! Live purposefully and worthily and accurately, not as the unwise and witless, but as wise (sensible, intelligent people), 16 making the very most of the time [buying up each opportunity], because the days are evil. 17 Therefore do not be vague and thoughtless and foolish, but understanding and firmly grasping what the will of the Lord is. 18 And do not get drunk with wine, for that is debauchery; but ever be filled and stimulated with the [Holy] Spirit. [Prov. 23:20.] 19 Speak out to one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, offering praise with voices [and instruments] and making melody with all your heart to the Lord, 20 At all times and for everything giving thanks in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ to God the Father. (Eph 5:14-20) Ampl

May the God of heaven grant us mercy and open our eyes, for the hour of His return is at hand. May God find each of us faithful servants, giving His people their food at the proper time of the seasons of the Lord Jesus Christ.
